

I highly object to Sinclair abusing its role as a broadcaster.

If you allow them to broadcast material that is against our future president, John Kerry, then surely they should be expected to air something equally as critical of the current president.

Thank you.